

Event Report

The Department of Chinese and Tibetan Languages celebrated JANJATIYA GAURAV DIWAS on 15.11.2022 to commemorate the Birsa Munda Jayanti. On this occasion, a special lecture was organised under the chairmanship of Prof. Baijnath Prasad, Professor and Chairperson, Department of Hindi, also the Chairperson, Department of Chinese and Tibetan Languages. Prof. Damodar Panda, Professor of Chinese Language and Chinese Studies welcomed the chairperson Prof. Baijnath Prasad, the speaker Ms. Alka Kalyan, senior research scholar in Department of Hindi and all present on the occasion. He also introduced the theme and invited Ms. Alka Kalyan to deliver the lecture. She spoke eloquently on the life, struggles and contributions of Birsa Munda, the prominent freedom fighter, for the rights of tribal communities. She also enlightened the students about the valour and courage of this great tribal leader to stand up to the might of the British Raj for the cause of the tribal communities, particularly in, presently known as, state of Jharkhand. The Chairperson also talked about our freedom movement, culture, contributions of Birsa Munda, the great freedom fighter, and encouraged the students to work for the benefits of the society. The students of Chinese language actively participated. In the end Prof. Panda proposed a vote of thanks to all present for making the event a success.
